Privacy Policy

The BPP Operations Center, a department of The Texas A&M University System Offices, maintains this Web site. The following applies to all pages maintained on this site but not to all links from this site.

1. Cookies: a file that contains unique information a Web site can use to track such things as passwords, lists of pages visited and the date you last looked at a specific page or to identify your session at a particular Web site. No cookies are placed on your system.

2. E-Mail: Electronic Mail sent when clicking on an e-mail link or submitting information via forms that contains personal or identifiable information will only be used to process that submission. In the event another agency or person is better suited to respond, your email will be sent to them to better serve you. No information will be shared, sold, rented or otherwise distributed to any entity outside the A&M System for any commercial purpose.

3. Site Management Functions: Information collected for analysis and statistical purposes. This information is not reported or used in any manner that would reveal personally identifiable information, and will not be released to outside parties, unless legally required to do so in connection with law enforcement investigations or other legal proceedings.
