3) Methodology for Determining the Compensation of Executive Staff

The Texas A&M University System Board of Regents sets the initial salary and conditions of employment for Board-appointed positions. Board-appointed positions include the executive staff positions of Vice Presidents. Such appointments are recommended by the Institution/Agency CEO to the Chancellor, and confirmed by the Board. The salaries of other executive staff positions are established by the Institution/Agency's CEO and are based on multiple factors, which may include, but are not limited to: performance; complexity of work; education and professional experience required for the position; scope of responsibility; and where the information is available, salaries for executive staff in similar positions at comparable institutions/agencies.

4) Executive Staff Eligible for a Salary Supplement

Executive staff are eligible for a salary supplement in accordance with TAMUS policy. These salary supplements do not include gifts as defined by Texas Government Code Sec. 659.0201.

5) Market Average Comparison of Executive Staff

Members of the Texas A&M University System use multiple sources of readily available salary survey data. A link to the College and University Professional Association (CUPA) for HR - Administrators in Higher Education salary survey is provided below:
