CONVENE

Chairman Elaine Mendoza convened a regular meeting of the Board of Regents of The Texas A&M University System at 9:01 a.m., Thursday, May 14, 2020, via telephone conference call.

Chairman Mendoza said that each party to the conference call should clearly identify himself or herself prior to speaking. The following members of the Board were present by telephone:

Ms. Elaine Mendoza, Chairman
Mr. Tim Leach, Vice Chairman
Mr. Phil Adams
Mr. Robert L. Albritton
Mr. Jay Graham
Mr. Michael A. Hernandez III
Mr. Bill Mahomes
Mr. Michael J. Plank
Mr. Clifton L. Thomas, Jr.
Mr. Levi McClenny, Student Regent

RECESS TO EXECUTIVE SESSION

Chairman Mendoza announced that the Board would recess to executive session as permitted by Chapter 551, Sections 71, 72, 73, 74 and 76 of the Texas Government Code. She said in accordance with the law, no final action, decision or vote with regard to any matter considered in executive session would be made or taken.

(Note: The Board met in executive session from 9:03 a.m. until 12:25 p.m.)

RECONVENE

Chairman Mendoza reconvened the meeting in open session at 2:00 p.m., with a quorum present.

INVOCATION

Chairman Mendoza called on Mr. David Brookins, a Texas A&M University Mechanical Engineering major pursuing a Master's degree in Finance at the Mays School of Business, who presented the invocation.

CHAIRMAN’S REMARKS

Chairman Mendoza welcomed everyone to the meeting. She said given the environment they were currently in due to the COVID-19 pandemic, this meeting focused on time-sensitive items and the Regents had tightened up the agenda. She thanked Regent Mahomes, Chairman of the Committee on Buildings and Physical Plant, and Regent Albritton, Chairman of the Committee on Finance, for allowing the Board to address all items as a committee of the whole. Chairman Mendoza thanked Regent Thomas, Chairman of the Committee on Academic and Student Affairs, for conducting the “datapalooza meeting” on March 4, 2020. She said they were looking forward to hearing more about that meeting. She thanked Regent Adams, Chairman of the Committee on Audit, for holding the committee’s report until the August Board meeting. Chairman Mendoza pointed out that they would conclude today’s meeting by honoring Student Regent McClenny, whose one-year term would soon end.

Chairman Mendoza congratulated Vice Chairman Leach and Regent Hernandez on being named 2020 Texas A&M Distinguished Alumni. She said this was a well-deserved honor and they looked forward to celebrating with them later in the year.

Chairman Mendoza said that since last Board meeting, it was difficult to comprehend the seismic shift that had happened in the world. She added that while change came astonishingly fast, the A&M System’s rapid and robust response had been admirable. She said it spoke volumes about the students, faculty, staff and leadership in the System. Chairman Mendoza advised that they continued educating students, though remotely as opposed to in the class. She said they had stepped up the research on the critical COVID-19 front, and found new ways to serve the communities, state and nation. She noted that unfortunately, there was no way to hold graduation ceremonies that students had worked for, but this accomplishment was too important so institutions found a way to celebrate with innovation and sincerity. Chairman Mendoza said that the universities held various virtual ceremonies honoring the deserving graduates. She pointed out that this was not the conclusion to their collegiate career that students wanted or expected, but completing their education was a significant achievement, whether or not they walked across the stage. She said members of the spring class of 2020 had navigated unprecedented challenges to finish what they began and therefore knew they could do anything. Chairman Mendoza explained that the future was brighter because of these graduates that were resolute, purposeful and visionary. She congratulated each of them.

Chairman Mendoza reported that A&M System leaders had begun discussing reopening next fall while protecting the health and welfare of students, faculty and staff. She said no decision would be made at this meeting, but they continued to keep their eye on what was happening in Texas. She noted that first they must understand the past three months and the pandemic’s impact on students, faculty and staff, on academics and operations, as they acknowledged the System’s response.

CHANCELLOR'S REMARKS

Chancellor John Sharp said they could be proud of the A&M System's response to the pandemic. He advised that across the System, the academic institutions moved quickly to make an emergency transition to remote learning to keep the faculty, students and staff safe. He said in an eight-day period, they moved 150,000 students online without incident. Chancellor Sharp pointed out that the May 2020 class graduated in a series of novel virtual ceremonies all over the System, while the remainder of the System moved to the front lines against the pandemic. He said Dr. Jeffrey Cirillo, Professor in the College of Medicine at the Texas A&M Health Science Center (TAMHSC), was vaccinating medical professionals with an almost century old Tuberculosis (TB) vaccine to prove that the drug mitigated the effects of COVID-19, reducing hospitalizations and death rate. He added that if it worked, the drug could buy time while a COVID-19 vaccine was developed. Chancellor Sharp said the Chancellor's Research Initiative funded the six-month clinical trial, collaborating with the Harvard School of Public Health, MD Anderson and Baylor College of Medicine. He noted that millions of children around the world received the TB vaccinations until 1950, because of the near eradication of TB. He said the extension agents were assisting local officials, particularly in rural areas, as they did during Hurricane Harvey; but this time it related to online training to apply for more than two trillion dollars in federal relief. Chancellor Sharp explained that it might not be important to Harris County that had expertise, but to Refugio County and smaller counties, it was a great help. He said Texas A&M engineers used 3-D printers to manufacture face shields for the Baylor College of Medicine, and Texas A&M University-Corpus Christi did the same for Driscoll Hospital. He commented that the Texas A&M College of Architecture produced 3D surgical face shields for emergency units at local hospitals, and a clinic built by Texas A&M students was sent to Memorial Herman Hospital in Houston.

Chancellor Sharp announced that the Texas Veterinary Medical Diagnostic Laboratory (TVMDL) donated 2,000 sampling kits to hospitals around the state where regional campuses and Texas A&M were located. He said TVMDL had applied for a federal waiver to test COVID-19. He advised that TVMDL, larger than any laboratory in Texas, could process more than 3,000 tests per day, a key factor in reopening the economy. Chancellor Sharp said Texas A&M's School of Law faculty helped Texans understand the benefits and implications of the federal government's relief package in a series of one-hour seminars. He added that at West Texas A&M University, engineering students developed Copper Clean stickers for door handles. He said the highly engineered copper-alloy foil with adhesive backing helped alleviate the microbial burden on high-touch surfaces being tested for COVID-19 protection. Chancellor Sharp noted that Texas A&M AgriLife Research scientists were working on a proposal to build resilience in the food supply chain using artificial intelligence (AI). He said exploiting huge amounts of real time data, state-of-the-art AI algorithms would avoid the time-consuming process of manually redesigning supply chain logistics. He pointed out that Texas A&M AgriLife Extension Service economists had developed a publication directing farmers and ranchers to help with resources for financial relief. Chancellor Sharp said TAMHSC was working with the Texas Department of State Health Services (DSHS) and Governor Greg Abbott to assist with the workforce from the faculty and students to provide contact-tracing operations as the state begins to reopen. He reported that 70% of Texas A&M's senior nursing students left school a month early to join the front lines of the hospitals and clinics. He said the System began a television show, "COVID-19: The Texas A&M University System Responds," to highlight great researchers, pandemic experts and others responding to the pandemic. Chancellor Sharp stated that it airs at 7:00 p.m., Thursday on KAMU and public television stations in Amarillo, Austin, Dallas and San Antonio, and the A&M System's U-Tube channel. He said as the System responded to the pandemic, leadership had been assessing the impact. He explained that Mr. Billy Hamilton, Deputy Chancellor and Chief Financial Officer, and Dr. James Hallmark, Vice Chancellor for Academic Affairs, would report on ideas for reopening the A&M System. Chancellor Sharp said System leaders were also planning how to reopen the campuses safely this fall. He emphasized that enrollment projections looked good but they must monitor the spread of the disease. He said fall 2020 could not look like the spring and summer without serious consequences. Chancellor Sharp remarked that they must be smart, reopen safely, and believed they had guidelines to do that. He said they would present the reopening plan to the Board at a later date. He thanked the Board for its leadership during these challenging times.

Impact on Academics and Student Life - Dr. Hallmark reported that the spring semester had been messy, but they survived and essentially moved all summer offerings to remote instruction. He added that some universities hoped to offer limited face-to-face instruction in July or August; however, summer would mostly be remote instruction. He said it was unlikely they would see many large packed classrooms in the fall. Dr. Hallmark said that as they moved beyond this crisis there would probably be a greater balance of face-to-face and online courses. He explained that they had been moving that direction and this experience accelerated that trajectory. He said the massive online presence at Texas A&M prior to spring was mostly at the graduate level, but should expand at the undergraduate level, while maintaining the physical presence and culture that current and former students, parents, and citizens of Texas, expected of Texas A&M. He said several A&M System institutions had a significant undergraduate and master's level presence online. He noted that the System member universities and leaders were routinely involved in statewide conversations when discussing leadership of online programming. He said consequently, the System was moving in that direction and fall 2021 and beyond would see even more of that.

Dr. Hallmark announced that in fall 2021 they would see a mix of four categories of courses: online courses, hybrid courses, hyflex courses and face-to-face courses. He said hybrid courses were a mix of face-to-face and online courses. He advised that the student might be required to attend class once a week or month for a concentrated period, or other format for face-to-face activities where best accomplished. Dr. Hallmark said much of the learning was delivered so that the course was a mix of online and face-to-face. He noted that in a face-to-face environment there was discussion, activities and experiential learning. He said the hyflex course was relatively new, and offered remotely and simultaneously face-to-face. Dr. Hallmark added that the student chose when they would attend class, such as a lecture they were interested in, found particularly challenging, or wanted to engage in face-to-face. He said they expected plenty of face-to-face courses because in some courses, it was difficult to convert to a fully online environment -- and the online learning environment was not the quality they expected. Dr. Hallmark reported that examples were courses where students needed to manipulate something with their hands or see patients, mix chemicals, weld things, play an instrument or dance. He said these also included discussion classes, because online discussion did not match face-to-face course discussion. He commented that also some students did not perform well in a remote environment they needed the structure, immediacy or accountability from attending class. Dr. Hallmark said those students were auditory learners noticing social cues that might not be there fully online. He remarked that this spring some students indicated they did not learn as well in that environment, and the post-COVID-19 classroom must consider that. He said there would be a mix of online, face-to-face, hybrid and hyflex courses, and not entirely online or face-to-face. Dr. Hallmark stated that they would prioritize class and program space best accomplished through face-to-face instruction, and prioritize online instruction for courses and programs best accomplished online.

Dr. Hallmark said the A&M System campuses were open the entire spring semester. He added that they received daily and later weekly updates on number of students living in residence halls and other issues facing the universities and agencies, and the ways in which those agencies and universities served. He said the universities served their students, SSC cleaned, food service served food, and the buses ran at Texas A&M. Dr. Hallmark noted that they moved all classes to remote instruction and encouraged everyone that could to go home. He said instruction did not go online; instead, they had an emergency transition to remote instruction -- an important phrase, because emergency meant they did not plan for it. He advised that the faculty were untrained and students had not signed up for remote classes, but had to do it. Dr. Hallmark emphasized that online had a specific meaning and remote captured any possible means a faculty member might utilize to move their class instruction where the instructor and student were not in the same location. He said the A&M System faculty and students used every available means to keep the classes going.

Dr. Hallmark reported that students were utilizing interactive videos, Zoom and Webex, correspondence, posting on websites, and even texting pictures of assignments to faculty members. He said whatever it took to accomplish the goal, students and faculty pursued it, and were very creative. He stressed that the faculty, administration and instructional designers deserved high praise for what the teams pulled off. Dr. Hallmark said what was done this spring was not what they wanted for subsequent fall semesters. He explained that this past spring many faculty were untrained for the experience. He said courses designed for one mode of instruction were moved into another mode without the opportunity to redesign that course. Dr. Hallmark commented that teaching laboratories shifted from conducting experiments to watching the professor conduct the experiment and writing analyses of those observations. He said research laboratories were suspended; limited to essential activity, or research was put on hold. He remarked that students, faculty and staff with one computer in the house, competed with siblings or children completing class assignments, and/or parents, spouses and partners trying to work from home. Dr. Hallmark said many students, faculty and staff lacked sufficient internet. He stated that the universities checked out hundreds of laptops and hotspots flooded the parking lots with Wi-Fi signals. He said this was done similarly at AgriLife, Texas A&M Engineering Experiment Station (TEES) and Texas A&M Engineering Extension Service (TEEX) scattered throughout the state to provide the connectivity that many in Texas did not have. Dr. Hallmark stated that libraries doubled efforts to deliver instructional materials electronically and/or remotely. He said tutoring and study sessions occurred online, or in Zoom rooms. He added that they did all they could to offer students the services they needed to be successful. Dr. Hallmark said student activities took a hit, such as Ring Day, clubs and organizations moved to Zoom, and scholarship dinners and honors banquets went virtual. He said of course, graduation ceremonies took on a very different form.

Dr. Hallmark said each Friday since Spring Break, Dr. Shonda Gibson, Associate Vice Chancellor, and Mr. James Searle, Program Director, Academic Affairs Initiatives, in Academic Affairs, joined him in a call with the Chancellor's Student Advisory Committee (CSAC), which included Student Regent McClenny. He added that CSAC students shared the challenges they faced in their classes; like connectivity and assignments faculty members created in a face-to-face environment, now herculean in a virtual environment. Dr. Hallmark noted that they shared how their universities were providing Wi-Fi and devices for needy students, testing assignments, cheating and integrity problems. He said the CSAC students shared how student affairs and student activities were conducting elections, and scholarship and honors activities. He advised that they had questions about refunding fees for residence halls, food services, and others. Dr. Hallmark said each call left the team proud of the students and universities working together to meet each challenge that arose. He reported that eight universities employed Hanover Research's survey to assess students' experiences and utilized the data to better serve their students. He said several universities called each student. He said now they were working on a plan for the fall, engaging public health leaders, leaders in the provosts and student affairs office, presidents and medical experts. Dr. Hallmark reiterated that they would be sharing that plan in the coming days and weeks.

Dr. Hallmark reported that the academic quality, health, and safety of the university communities was the focus of their plans for this fall. He said they planned to reopen face-to-face instruction, class activities and residential living, but remained flexible to respond as the situation determined. He advised that not all classes would be face-to-face, but a mixture to meet the needs of the students. Dr. Hallmark referenced the four categories; online classes, hybrid classes, hyflex classes and face-to-face classes. He added that beyond those categories, the universities were devising ways to meet student needs this fall. Dr. Hallmark said working to protect the health and safety of students, faculty and staff consisted of testing, monitoring, protective equipment, cleaning and designing with flexibility in mind. He noted that they were "upping the ante" on quality academics, moving from remote to online. Dr. Hallmark said they needed to focus on moving from face-to-face to redesign those instructional classes to match the mode of instruction in which it would be offered, and train the faculty to teach in this new environment. He said six years ago under Chancellor Sharp's direction, initiated by the Council on Academic Technology and Innovative Education (CATIE), they began a Quality Assurance program, where using Quality Matters product and other processes, all online courses, faculty and programs went through a rigorous design and training procedure, which did not happen this spring. Chancellor Sharp said a task force working with the agencies and universities were developing steps for fall's reopening and would soon present their plan to the Board for consideration.

Regent Graham asked if related to the course descriptions provided, was the System suggesting that these be permanent changes going forward. He said were they making a conscious effort to do more online and different types of classes moving forward, regardless of the pandemic's outcome. Dr. Hallmark replied that they would be using those strategies for fall 2020. He said, as with any strategy, they would assess how it went in the fall 2020, and if effective continue it. He advised that they anticipated more online, hybrid, hyflex classes through fall 2023.

Regent Graham asked how they judged the effectiveness and what criteria they looked at. He asked if they communicated with students each semester, and how they determined the right techniques. Dr. Hallmark said they regularly assessed the learning outcomes for each class. He said they assessed the students' performances as a whole to understand the success of the particular strategy used. He advised that all universities assessed learning outcomes as part of their accreditation. Dr. Hallmark said if the assessments showed that a strategy was not effective, they made adjustments. He pointed out that effective strategies were utilized more. He said their assessment process was based on if students learned what they needed to in that course.

Regent Graham said that going forward they needed to judge each student's situation, whether in a hybrid or other type of class. He said they needed to ensure that students had laptops, the right computer systems and access to Wi-Fi. He asked did they consider it the student or System's responsibility to provide necessary equipment to handle those learning situations. Dr. Hallmark replied that it had been handled through open computer laboratories at the university, as they did this spring. He said all these laboratories remained opened since many students did not have access to what they needed at home. He advised that moving forward they needed to consider the individual's devices and their quality. Dr. Hallmark said that already existed at some universities, particularly private institutions, where the student was required to own a specific device. He noted that a few programs did that in the System. He said certain majors required specific equipment or software, and that might grow. Dr. Hallmark explained that they were aware that the A&M System served a large number of students with significant financial challenges. He said they wanted to provide what they could from the institution. He added that there was a growing realization that students' personal devices were a significant part of their learning capability.

Financial and Budget Impact - Mr. Hamilton said the DSHS announced the first case of COVID-19 in Texas on March 4, and on March 13, President Trump declared a national emergency due to the epidemic. Mr. Hamilton said 22 known cases were in Texas. He noted that more cases began to appear in the state and by March 15, 56 cases were reported, a 155% increase from the day before. He said several major cities began issuing shelter-in-place orders and ordering closures of non-essential businesses. Mr. Hamilton advised that about March 15, universities began the planning and execution of moving classes to temporary remote status. He said that as shelter-in-place orders became increasingly common, Brazos County issued a stay-at-home order on March 23. He pointed out that on March 16, Chancellor Sharp directed System Governmental Relations to begin daily surveys of System members for a report to the Board, which changed to weekly reports in April. Mr. Hamilton stated that they focused on specific topics like dormitory populations and related issues. He said planning for the System's response was in progress with communications with state health authorities, the Texas Higher Education Coordinating Board (THECB), other state university systems and the Texas Division of Emergency Management on best strategies for the System members and agencies. On March 18, Chancellor Sharp made the decision to keep System universities open for students needing to remain on campus with food, lodging, health care, internet and counseling services offered. He said some students had no place to go, or their situation would be more difficult at home -- without internet access, food insecurities or other issues. He remarked that other students were given the option to return home or shelter in place at their current residences. Mr. Hamilton said that 75% of Texas A&M students lived off campus and some were permanent residents of Bryan/College Station.

Mr. Hamilton reported that remote instruction began on March 23 for most campuses. He said the universities accomplished this in eight days. He advised that on March 23, the System issued guidance on housing and dining charges, and they began a process of credits and refunds for students electing to withdraw from onsite housing to return home. Mr. Hamilton said on March 23, they announced a systemwide flexible hiring freeze. He noted that System chief executive officers were given alternatives for conserving resources in anticipation of epidemic-associated costs and the difficult economic situation in the fall and for the next two fiscal years. He said the federal government's Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security (CARES) Act was signed on March 27, which contained significant aid for higher education. Mr. Hamilton pointed out that on April 27, Governor Abbott released a statewide order to begin reopening the economy and on May 4, the System issued guidance on reopening of business operations, pointing to a reopening of campuses in fall 2020. He said details and further guidance would be issued as the pandemic's progress became clearer. He remarked that they also began financial pulse check online meetings with all System members to better assess their financial conditions and look to the pandemic's impact for the coming year. Mr. Hamilton said they worked System members to adjust debt service requirements when possible and deferring capital projects to ensure their budgets were not overstrained. He added that they continued to work through the System Capital Plan, and would present it at the August Board meeting. He said as in Hurricane Harvey and other state disasters, the System had been intricately involved in the response to the pandemic on a statewide basis.

Mr. Hamilton said that despite the best efforts of many individuals, there were economic and public health effects of the pandemic on the state and national economy. He explained that U.S. employment was struggling and the unemployment rate was currently at 14.7%. He said current numbers indicated that 36 million were unemployed and the unemployment rate would likely go above 20% before it began to ease. Mr. Hamilton reported that the Texas unemployment rate was currently 4.7%, but that data was not as recent as federal data. He said related to state finances, there was a 9.3% drop in sales tax last month, accounting for about 60% of state revenues. He stated that they anticipated a 20% to 25% drop this month, if not more. Mr. Hamilton said last month only reflected a part of March during which the shelter-in-place orders began, and there was still significant loss. He advised that May's sales tax was a quarterly peak, and those numbers would reflect significant loss. He said the same would be true of other major taxes; certainly, the oil and gas taxes would be impacted. Mr. Hamilton added that the motor vehicle sales tax would be impacted by essentially no sales and the franchise, hotel and motel taxes also. He said the Controller would release a revenue estimate revision in July. He noted that at the end of this month the numbers would tell them what happened through the end of May, and in June, they would reforecast revenues. Mr. Hamilton said there would likely be a substantial reduction in the current year's forecast and any forecast for years going forward. He pointed out that they had anticipated a significant surplus at the end of the fiscal year and likely, would face a deficit once those numbers became available. He said the impact would be significant, especially because it was driven by consumption-based taxes. Mr. Hamilton emphasized that they would be prepared for this eventuality. He said an important part of that preparation would be the Programmatic Budget Review (PBR) during the summer and the adoption of the budget at the August Board meeting.

Mr. Hamilton announced that overall, despite what they had seen about The University of Texas (UT) System and their substantial losses, without clinical revenues as the UT System had the A&M System's financial losses were considerably less in magnitude. He said funding to the universities and students under the CARES Act had significantly helped. He advised that current preliminary numbers were in the middle of the pandemic, and with each day, the losses would increase. Mr. Hamilton said in the fall, the meter would spin rapidly unless could begin to unwind the current situation. He added that a lot depended on the course of the pandemic over the summer. He said the total allocation to universities under the CARES Act was approximately $113 million in U.S. Department of Education grants, split equally between students and institutions.

Mr. Hamilton explained that Emergency Financial Aids Grants to Students was allocated to students incurring expenses related to the disruption of campus operations due to COVID-19, and overall dollars were divided by universities between spring, summer and fall semesters to ensure assistance was available now and in the next academic year. He said additionally, they rolled balances into the current fiscal year from the Regents Grants -- small grants to assist students in need, which universities had access to if needed. He remarked that in addition to the CARES Act distributed to all universities, was a $30 million allocation to Minorities Serving Institutions (MSI), for a total of about $143 million. Mr. Hallmark said there were no matching requirements on this money. He said the agencies did not receive CARES Act funding, but were eligible for assistance under Category B of the Stafford Disaster Relief and Emergency Assistance Act (Stafford Act) from the Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA), that required a 25% match to be accessed, and documentation requirements were stiff. He added that they worked with the agencies to ensure that any claims made under the Stafford Act were adequately documented.

Mr. Hamilton referred to financial charts (PowerPoint on file in the Office of the Board of Regents) indicating the distribution of funding allocated to each institution under the CARES Act. He said this funding was significant, but would not cover all the System institution's pandemic costs for lost revenue from housing, dining and others, and the direct costs of dealing with the pandemic. He said examples were the added costs of moving online, refunding housing and dining costs, additional cleaning protocols and personal protective equipment. Mr. Hamilton added that as of May 1, the System had occurred or would occur a total loss revenue and costs of $120 million. He said from that they must net out the amount earmarked for direct student assistance. He noted that after those adjustments, the CARES Act funding covered all but about $16.6 million in total losses to date. He said the effects were not distributed evenly among institutions, and any surplus or shortfall was not either. He emphasized that it was an ongoing exercise and the cost data was updated and reported to the Legislative Budget Board on a monthly basis. Mr. Hamilton said regarding what they knew, projected loss revenue estimates through August 31, the state's fiscal year, was $73 million plus. He explained that Texas A&M accounted for $27 million, related to housing and dining operations, waiver of summer distance education fees, athletics and so on. He said the agencies accounted for another $28 million; $20 million due to the TEEX fire training school revenue loss and $6 million from AgriLife Research losses in laboratory-generated fees and testing services. Mr. Hamilton reported that the agencies were particularly hard hit if they focused on training or research and testing fees that had come to a pause during the pandemic. He said expenses included, housing and dining refunds projected at $42 million through August 31, $17 million in housing refunds, $10 million in dining refunds, $2.3 million in other auxiliary refunds such as parking, $12.6 million in direct COVID-19 disruption and response expenses, personnel costs, additional faculty to cover the shift to remote instruction, faculty training, consumable supplies, custodial services, information technology equipment and testing. He commented that losses mounted daily, and although they would slow during the summer, in August as the fall semester began, associated costs could build up, including parking, housing and dining revenue, lost athletics revenue and other costs. Mr. Hamilton said that as they worked with public health experts on a detailed reopening plan for the fall, no idea was wasted as they attempted to figure out this pandemic. He stated that they PBRs would be held in late July or early August. He said at the August Board meeting, Regents would approve the System budget for the coming year, which began September 1, in addition to a System Capital Plan update. He announced that they would also be discussing legislative proposals and strategies for the upcoming biennium.

Chairman Mendoza said Regent Albritton had been working with Mr. Hamilton in preparation for the PBR meeting. She advised them to contact Chancellor Sharp and his team with questions until everything reopened in August. She said they would keep the information flowing.

Chairman Mendoza announced that they had not receive any requests for public testimony.

STUDENT REGENT REMARKS

Student Regent McClenny presented these remarks (a copy of which is on file in the Office of the Board of Regents).

Regent Hernandez said he had been extremely impressed with Student Regent McClenny. He added that he had a maturity and level of comprehension on many subjects that often he was unable to figure out. He wished Student Regent McClenny the best of luck.

Regent Graham noted that Student Regent McClenny's comments about not imagining asking a question that was asked by another Regent hit home. He said he knew that at that age he would not have thought to ask the questions that Student Regent McClenny did. Regent Graham added that it had been an honor working with him, and having his two sons get to know him. He said he would be proud if his sons could make the impact at Texas A&M in their time that Student Regent McClenny had. He stated that he had done a great job and wished him all the best.

Regent Adams agreed with Regents Hernandez and Graham. He said Student Regent McClenny had been an outstanding student regent. He noted that he had seen many student regents since he came on the Board, 19 years ago. Regent Adams said Student Regent McClenny was among the top. He pointed out that the Board had great student regents, including Mr. Tyson Voelkel, President of the Texas A&M Foundation. He said Student Regent McClenny was very bright. Regent Adams advised that engineers were thoughtful, always asked the right questions, had good judgement, were good problem solvers and they expected big things from him. He said Student Regent McClenny had been an outstanding student regent and they wished him the best and hoped to see a lot of him.

Regent Plank said he came on the Board with Student Regent McClenny, and it had been a pleasure to work with him. He added that as others stated, he also had interacted with many student appointees, including at the THECB. He said Student Regent McClenny had come to every Board meeting as well prepared as anyone. Regent Plank pointed out that he had done his homework and was extremely well prepared. He said he was a very articulate and accomplished young man, it had been a privilege to serve with him, and wished him the best.

Regent Mahomes noted that it had been an absolute joy to serve on the Board with Student Regent McClenny this year. He said he often forgot that he was a student regent because he participated as much as other Regents, which he really enjoyed. He thanked him for his service.

Vice Chairman Leach congratulated him and said it was a job well done. He said he was not going to tell him anymore about how great he was, but wished him good luck and he looked forward to seeing him in the future.

Regent Thomas told him not to be a stranger. He asked him to keep in touch, and wished him good luck.

Regent Albritton added that it had truly been a pleasure getting to know Student Regent McClenny and working with him. He said there was no doubt that his future was very bright. He noted that they hoped to see him often, and congratulated him on a job well done.

Chairman Mendoza said the other Regents had said it very well, and she was sorry this could not have been in person. She advised that typically they would honor him with a luncheon and share the accolades and appreciation for what he brought to the Board. She said they had all grown and learned from him, and thanked him. Chairman Mendoza added that the year flew by so quickly, but Student Regent McClenny had made a great impression. She wished him all the best in the future. She said he had made a difference and they really appreciated him.

Student Regent McClenny said it was an honor to work with Chairman Mendoza and all the Regents. He said it had been an incredible year, and he really appreciated their comments.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Chairman Mendoza thanked each Regent for giving time among the turmoil toward the Strategic Plan. She said they had provided great feedback and comments. She added that they were keeping it in motion and with any luck, they would vote on it in August. She said they were lucky to meet this way and that they were all safe and healthy. Chairman Mendoza advised that coming together in this format had not been easy. She thanked Ms. Vickie Spillers, Executive Director, Ms. Jackie Bell, Assistant to the Board of Regents, and their team. Chairman Mendoza also thanked Mr. Jason Muchow, Associate Director of Rudder Theatre Complex. She said they had done tremendous work for all they had done to make this as smooth as possible and as easy for all of them as possible.

Chairman Mendoza thanked the System office leaders, beginning with Chancellor Sharp. She said they appreciated the institutions' leadership and university presidents for all they were doing for students, faculty and staff and their communities. She emphasized that during this crazy time, their actions mattered, and the A&M System could not be in better hands. Chairman Mendoza said the System could not be the shining light for the future that it was today without them doing what they were. She added that God willing they would meet face-to-face in August. She said until then, stay well and know the Board had an enormous amount of gratitude for their leadership and the things they were doing.

ADJOURN

There being no further business, Chairman Mendoza asked for a motion to adjourn. On motion of Regent Plank, seconded by Regent Mahomes, the meeting was adjourned at 3:32 p.m.

UNIVERSITY RULE

08.99.99.P1 Expressive Activity on Campus

Approved May 14, 2020

Next Scheduled Review: May 14, 2025

Rule Summary

As stated in the Preamble to Senate Bill 18, "Freedom of expression is of critical importance and requires each public institution of higher education to ensure free, robust, and uninhibited debate and deliberations by students enrolled at the institution, regardless of whether the students are on or off-campus. It is a matter of statewide concern that all public institutions of higher education officially recognize freedom of speech as a fundamental right. Freedom of speech and assembly is central to the mission of institutions of higher education, and persons should be permitted to assemble peaceably on the campuses of institutions of higher education for expressive activities, including to listen to or observe the expressive activities of others."

Rule Statement

Prairie View A&M University (PVAMU) is committed to providing an environment where issues can be openly discussed and explored. The university expects that persons engaging in expressive activities will demonstrate civility, concern for the safety of persons and property, respect for university activities, and compliance with university policies and applicable local, state, and federal laws.

This rule will detail the policies and procedures that will govern all expressive activities on campus.

Official Procedures and Responsibilities

1. GENERAL POLICY

- 1.1 The First Amendment to the United States Constitution protects students' rights to engage in all sorts of expressive conduct on college campuses – including oral speech, leaflets, signs, displays, concerts, visual performing arts, and even silence. PVAMU, a Texas public university, has set forth the following policies and procedures to protect the freedom of speech for all students, employees, or any persons, and to provide the safest environment for expressive activities to take place.
- 1.2 This rule is in place to provide a community environment in which open discussion can occur without disrupting the academic mission or daily university functions, and without unconstitutionally interfering with the rights of others.

- 1.3 The university does not impose any restrictions to control the point of view expressed by speakers or others engaged in expressive activities.
- 1.4 The contents of expressive activities allowed on campus should not be interpreted as any shared opinion, endorsement, or concurrence by the university
- 1.5 Nothing in this rule should be interpreted as prohibiting faculty members from maintaining order in the classroom.

2. EXPRESSIVE ACTIVITY RIGHTS

- 2.1 Any person is allowed, subject to reasonable time, place, and manner restrictions, to engage in expressive activities in the common outdoor areas on the PVAMU campus, including by responding to the expressive activities of others.
- 2.2 Student organizations and employees are allowed to invite speakers to speak on campus.
- 2.3 In determining the amount of a fee to be charged for use of the university's facilities for purposes of engaging in expressive activities, the university may consider only content-neutral and viewpoint-neutral criteria related to the requirements of the event, such as the proposed venue and the expected size of the audience, any anticipated need for campus security, any necessary accommodations, and any relevant history of compliance or noncompliance by the requesting student organization or employee with this rule and other relevant policies and procedures. The university may not consider any anticipated controversy related to the event.
- 2.4 The university may not take action against a student organization or deny the organization any benefit generally available to other student organizations at the university based on a political, religious, philosophical, ideological, or academic viewpoint expressed by the organization or of any expressive activities of the organization.
- 2.5 The common outdoor areas of the university's campus are deemed traditional public forums. Any person is permitted to engage in expressive activities in these areas freely, as long as the person's conduct: (a) is not unlawful; and (b) does not materially and substantially disrupt the functioning of the institution.
- 2.6 Students may distribute written material in common outdoor areas as long as they are not substantially disrupting classes, forcing people to take material, or obstructing passageways. Permission is not needed from the institution to distribute materials.
- 2.7 Spontaneous Expressive Activity
 - 2.7.1 PVAMU understands that many forms of assembly, protest, and demonstrations may occur spontaneously. Proper decorum and good behavior are expected in indoor areas and are meant to permit a respectful exchange of ideas and opinions during expressive activities. For outdoor campus facilities and areas, students, student organizations, employees, and their sponsored guests may freely engage in spontaneous expressive activities. Traditional public forums include the university's public streets, sidewalks, parks, and similar common areas. These areas are generally available for expressive activity, planned or spontaneous, for the individual or small groups (where an event is not promoted in advance and/or when a student organization does not sponsor an event) at any time without the need for reservation, or prior approval. Spontaneous expressive activities may not: block access to campus buildings; obstruct vehicular or pedestrian traffic; substantially disrupt previously scheduled campus events; substantially disrupt college operations; constitute unlawful activity; or, create a clear and present threat to public safety.

- 2.7.2 PVAMU personnel may not impose restrictions on an individual or group who are engaging in spontaneous expressive activities due to the content or viewpoint of their expression or the possible reaction to that expression.

3. REASONABLE TIME, PLACE, AND MANNER RESTRICTIONS

- 3.1 Activities that are unlawful or that materially and substantially disrupt the normal operations of the university's campus are prohibited. Expressive activities on university grounds do not imply endorsement by the university.
- 3.2 The following is a list of parameters for the time, place, and manner restrictions of activities that apply to all expressive activities on campus:
 - 3.2.1 The activity may not violate local ordinances or state or federal laws.
 - 3.2.2 The activity may not unduly disrupt traffic, either vehicular or pedestrian, or interfere with the ingress or egress to or from any building.
 - 3.2.3 The activity may not create unreasonable safety risks.
 - 3.2.4 Weapons are prohibited unless in accordance with the university's established guidelines for the carrying of concealed handguns by a holder of a license to carry a handgun on PVAMU owned or leased premises. For additional information, please reference University rule 34.06.02.P1 Carrying Concealed Handguns on Campus and University Administrative Procedure 34.06.02.P0.01 Concealed Carry Prohibition.

4. EXPRESSIVE ACTIVITY RESERVATIONS

- 4.1 Requests for reserving an area for expressive activity should be submitted to the Office of Student Engagement.
 - 4.1.1 In an effort to ensure safety and to promote an environment conducive to study, advanced reservation for expressive activity is required for events or activities that are promoted in advance, and/or sponsored by student organizations, and/or expected to draw a crowd of more than 25 people. Advance reservation is also required for activities near intersections, and/or in close proximity to academic buildings anytime classes, and/or study activities, and/or research are taking place. Requests for reservations should be made through the Office of Student Engagement.

- 4.1.2 The outside street area adjacent to the Willie A. Tempton, Sr. Memorial Student Center, located at L.W. Minor Street, is the primary area to reserve for expressive activity (designated public forum) and will be reserved at the request of students and non-students for expressive activity. Other locations are available upon request. The act of confirming a reservation will ensure the availability of space. A reservation is not required, except as described in the reservation procedures.
- 4.2 University employees, students, and student organizations have the right to invite speakers to university forums to speak. When reviewing speakers, PVAMU will not consider any anticipated controversy related to the event.

5. SECURITY COST PROTOCOL FOR EXPRESSIVE ACTIVITY

- 5.1 All events requiring police or security services must complete and submit security requests to the University Police Department no less than two weeks before the scheduled event to allow for sufficient planning. Requests made with less than two weeks' notice are not guaranteed police or security services. Fees for event security services vary. Visit the University Police Department's website at www.pvamu.edu/upd for the most updated information.

6. DISCIPLINARY SANCTIONS

- 6.1 Students, student organizations, employees, or any persons who unduly interfere with the expressive activities of others on campus will be subject to the disciplinary policies and procedures outlined in the applicable Student Code of Conduct, University Catalog, Faculty Handbook, or university policies and procedures.
- 6.2 Violation of this rule may also constitute a breach of applicable criminal law. In such circumstances, Texas Penal Codes and Texas Code of Criminal Procedures will apply.

7. GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

- 7.1 Prairie View A&M University ensures the right of any person, subject to reasonable time, place, and manner restrictions, to engage in expressive activities on campus. PVAMU will directly address any violation of this premise. Individuals or groups wishing to make their concerns or potential violations known should utilize the Expressive Activity on Campus Complaint Form located on the Complaints & Appeals website. The appropriate campus entity will promptly address the inquiry/concern/complaint.
- 7.2 Any person who believes that their campus expressive activity rights, as recognized by this rule, have been unduly interfered with by a student, student organization, or employee has the right to file a grievance.
- 7.3 A student, student organization, or employee who is found to have unduly interfered with another person's expressive activity rights, as recognized by this rule, is subject to disciplinary action under the university's applicable rules and administrative procedures. The Office of University Compliance will investigate the grievance and draft a report summarizing its findings. If a violation of this rule is found to have occurred, the report will be referred to the appropriate office for further action. The status of the offending individual will determine the referral office. Complaints concerning: (a) faculty will be referred to the Office of the Provost; (b) students will be referred to the Office of Student Conduct, and; (c) staff and third parties will be referred to the Office of Human Resources.

8. IMPLEMENTATION

- 8.1 A copy of this rule shall be included in university published handbooks.
- 8.2 A copy of this rule shall be provided to students during the university's new student and transfer student orientation programs.
- 8.3 A copy of this rule shall be posted in the university's Policy Library.

Rule Statement and Reason for Rule

In 2019, the 86th Texas Legislature passed Senate Bill 18, addressing the protection of campus expressive activities. This new law adds Texas Education Code, Section 51.935, which requires that each public institution of higher education “adopt a policy detailing student’s rights and responsibilities regarding expressive activities” on its campus.

As stated in the Preamble to the Bill, “freedom of expression is of critical importance and requires each public institution of higher education to ensure free, robust, and uninhibited debate and deliberations by students enrolled at the institution, regardless of whether the students are on or off campus. It is a matter of statewide concern that all public institutions of higher education officially recognize freedom of speech as a fundamental right.” Freedom of speech and assembly is central to the mission of institutions of higher education, and persons (students, student organizations, employees, and third-parties) should be permitted to assemble peaceably on the campuses of institutions of higher education for expressive activities, including listening to or observing the expressive activities of others.

Rule

1. EXPRESSIVE ACTIVITY RIGHTS

- 1.1. Any person is allowed, subject to reasonable time, place, and manner restrictions, to engage in expressive activities on campus, including by responding to the expressive activities of others.
- 1.2. Student organizations and employees are allowed to invite speakers to speak on campus. In determining the amount of a fee to be charged for use of the university's facilities for purposes of engaging in expressive activities, the university may consider only content-neutral and viewpoint-neutral criteria related to the requirements of the event, such as the proposed venue and the expected size of the audience, any anticipated need for campus security, any necessary accommodations, and any relevant history of compliance or noncompliance by the requesting student organization or employee with this rule and other relevant rules. The university may not consider any anticipated controversy related to the event.
- 1.3. The university may not take action against a student organization or deny the organization any benefit generally available to other student organizations at the university on the basis of a political, religious, philosophical, ideological, or academic viewpoint expressed by the organization or of any expressive activities of the organization.
- 1.4. The common outdoor areas of the university's campus are deemed traditional public forums. Any person is permitted to engage in expressive activities in these areas freely, as long as the person's conduct: (a) is not unlawful; and (b) does not materially and substantially disrupt the functioning of the institution. Members of the university community are allowed to assemble or distribute written material in common outdoor areas without a permit or other permission from the institution.
 - 1.4.1. As outlined in Section 3, Texas A&M University may require advance reservation of events in certain circumstances to ensure safety and to promote an environment conducive to study.
 - 1.4.2. There are areas such as residences, the Bush Library, the nuclear reactors, utility buildings, etc. that have distance requirements, crowd placement restrictions, and security concerns that may vary depending on security needs, terror alerts, and other factors. Additionally, security needs, terror alerts, local and national events may affect the availability of spaces that would otherwise be routinely available. Information about existing requirements, restrictions, or security concerns will be discussed at the time a reservation request is processed.

- 1.5. Nothing in this rule should be interpreted as prohibiting faculty members from maintaining order in the classroom.

2. RESERVABLE DESIGNATED PUBLIC FORUMS

- 2.1. Rudder Fountain Area, Lawrence Sullivan Ross Statue Area, and the West Mall Area are reservable designated public forums and will be reserved at the request of students and non-students for expressive activity. The act of confirming a reservation will ensure the availability of space. A reservation is not required, except as described in Section 3. Each area available for reservation is described below.

- Rudder Fountain Area – space between Memorial Student Center and Rudder Tower. Sound equipment is allowed and is available for use in this area at a small fee. The volume of any sound equipment must be kept at a level that would not interfere with any academic or other program taking place in nearby buildings.
- Lawrence Sullivan Ross Statue Area – space west of the Academic Building and near the statue of Lawrence Sullivan Ross. No sound equipment is permitted in this area. (This area is not available for expressive activity during Silver Taps and/or during the Ross Volunteer practice for Silver Taps.)
- West Campus Mall Area – space east of the Heep Center and marked by flagpoles and plantings. No sound equipment is permitted in this area.

- 2.2. Texas A&M University branch campuses and remote locations may identify reservable designated public forums on their respective campuses.

3. ADVANCE RESERVATION REQUIREMENTS

In an effort to ensure safety and to promote an environment conducive to study, advanced reservation for expressive activity is required (in the form of an approved Reservation Request for Space) for events or activities that are promoted in advance, and/or sponsored by student organizations, and/or expected to draw a crowd of more than 25 people. Advance reservation is also required for activities near intersections, and/or in close proximity to academic buildings anytime classes, and/or study activities, and/or research are taking place.

4. RESERVATION PROCEDURES

- 4.1. Individuals or groups who are either required to make advance reservation (see Section 3) or those individuals or groups who otherwise wish to make advance reservations on main campus in College Station shall request use of the space through the Scheduling Office on the second floor of Rudder Tower. Individuals or groups who are either required to make advance reservation (see Section 3) or those individuals or groups who otherwise wish to make advance reservations at branch campuses or remote locations should contact the designate administrator at that location. If advance reservation is required (see Section 3), requests must be made at least five business days in advance of the event. Additional collaboration and coordination may be required from a building/space proctor. Usually use of the space will be assigned to the person or organization that requests the area first. University sponsored events have first priority on the use of campus facilities. The university reserves the right to locate any assembly so as to ensure that the activity does not interfere with the normal operation of the university or interfere with the rights of others.

- 4.2. The decision to confirm a request for space will be based on proper and timely completion of the Reservation Request form, compliance with applicable sound and sign requirements, and availability of space. The decision to confirm will be based on the foregoing criteria, and in no circumstance will any decision be based on the content or viewpoint of the expressive activity or upon the expected reaction of others. If a request is denied, the rationale for the decision will be provided in writing. The denial of a reservation request can be appealed to the Vice President for Student Affairs or a designee.

At the time of the request, the following information will be required:

- Name information of the person or organization sponsoring the event. Contact information for one individual who will be present during the course of the event.
- Location, date and time requested for the event.
- General purpose of the event.
- List of planned activities (i.e. speech or rally, march with signs, distribution of literature, sit-in).
- Special equipment requested.
- Anticipated attendance.

For recognized student organizations, an officer of the sponsoring organization must be present at the event, and during the entire course of the event.

4.3. Guidelines for Expression

1. Disruptive Activity – Obstruction, disruption or interference with classes, research, administrative functions or other university activities is not permitted. Likewise, infringement on the rights of others is prohibited.
2. Reasonable Access – It is important to provide reasonable access to, and exit from, any office, classroom, laboratory or building. Likewise, vehicular and pedestrian traffic should not be obstructed.
3. Picketing – Picketing in an orderly manner outside of university buildings may be permitted. Such activities should not become disruptive nor should they impede access. Picketing is not permitted inside campus buildings.
4. Literature may be distributed in traditional and designated public forums. Such activities should not become disruptive nor should they impede access.
5. Symbolic Protest – Displaying a sign, gesturing, wearing symbolic clothing or otherwise protesting silently is permissible unless it is a disruptive activity or impedes access. In addition, such acts should not block the audience's view or prevent the audience from being able to pay attention.

6. Noise – Making sustained or repeated noise in a manner that substantially interferes with speakers' ability to communicate their message is not permitted. Noise levels should not interfere with classes, meetings or activities in progress or the privacy of residence hall students.
7. Force or Violence – Any attempt to prevent a university activity or other lawful assembly by the threat or use of force or violence is not permissible.
8. Presenting Identification – In accordance with Texas Education Code § 51.209, it is unlawful for any persons on any property either owned or controlled by the university to refuse to identify themselves to a university official in response to a request. For the purpose of this rule people identify themselves by presenting student or faculty/staff ID card or government issued ID card.
9. Damage to Property – Any damage to university or personal property in the course of, or as a result of, an expressive activity is prohibited. Care should be taken to ensure that university and personal property is not damaged or destroyed. This includes the campus lawns, shrubs and trees.
10. Other University Rules – All applicable University Rules and University Student Rules should be followed whenever engaging in activities on campus. Consult the University Student Rules booklet for further information.

PROHIBITED LOCATIONS

Texas A&M University-Kingsville designates the following locations as prohibited for expressive activity, as they are non-public forums:

- 1) Mark Cisneros Center for Young Children, and the surrounding property
- 2) Academy High School/Poteet Building, and the surrounding property.

Appendix B: RESERVATION PROCEDURES

Individuals or groups who wish or that are required (08.02.01.K1, 1.4.1) to make advance reservation shall request use of the space through the Event Planning Office on the second floor of the Memorial Student Union Building. If advance reservation is required, requests must be made at least three days in advance of the event. Additional collaboration and coordination may be required from a building/space manager/proctor. Usually use of the space will be assigned to the person or organization that requests the area first. University sponsored events have first priority on the use of campus facilities. The university reserves the right to locate any assembly so as to ensure that the activity does not interfere with the normal operation of the university or interfere with the rights of others.

The decision to confirm a request for space will be based on proper and timely completion of the Event Planning reservation process, compliance with applicable sound and sign requirements, and availability of space. The decision to confirm will be based on the foregoing criteria, and in no circumstance will any decision be based on the content or viewpoint of the expressive activity or upon the expected reaction of others. If a request is denied, the rationale for the decision will be provided in writing. The denial of a reservation request can be appealed to the Senior Student Affairs Officer, or their designee.

At the time of the request the following information will be required:

- Name and contact information of the person or organization sponsoring the event.
- Contact information for one individual who will be present during the course of the event.
- Location, date and time requested for the event.
- General purpose of the event.
- List of planned activities (i.e. speech or rally, march with signs, distribution of literature, sit-in).
- Special equipment requested.
- Anticipated attendance.

For recognized student organizations, an officer of the sponsoring organization must be present at the event, and during the entire course of the event.

Guidelines for Expression

1. Disruptive Activity–Obstruction, disruption or interference with classes, research, administrative functions or other university activities is not permitted. Likewise, infringement on the rights of others is prohibited.
2. Reasonable Access–It is important to provide reasonable access to, and exit from, any office, classroom, laboratory or building. Likewise, vehicular and pedestrian traffic should not be obstructed.
3. Noise–Making sustained or repeated noise in a manner that substantially interferes with a speaker’s ability to communicate his/her message is not permitted. Noise levels should not interfere with classes, meetings or activities in progress or the privacy of residence hall students.
4. Force or Violence–Any attempt to prevent a university activity or other lawful assembly by the threat or use of force or violence is not permissible.
5. Presenting Identification–In accordance with the Texas Education Code it is unlawful for any person on any property either owned or controlled by the university to refuse to identify him/herself to a university official in response to a request. For the purpose of these rules a person identifies him/herself by presenting student or faculty/staff ID card or state or government issued ID card.

6. Damage to Property—Any damage to university or personal property in the course of, or as a result of, an expressive activity is prohibited. Care should be taken to ensure that university and personal property is not damaged or destroyed. This includes the campus lawns, shrubs and trees.
7. Other University Rules—All applicable university rules should be followed whenever engaging in activities on campus. Consult the Student Handbook and/or the University website for further information.

All individuals participating in expressive activity are expected to comply with state and federal law, municipal ordinances, university rules and the above guidelines. Failure to do so may result in immediate removal from the campus and any other appropriate action by university officials and/or University Police.

RULE SUMMARY

In 2019, the 86th Texas Legislature passed Senate Bill 18, addressing the protection of campus expressive activities. This new law adds Texas Education Code Section 51.935, which requires that each public institution of higher education “adopt a policy detailing student’s rights and responsibilities regarding expressive activities” on its campus.

As stated in the Preamble to the bill: Freedom of expression is of critical importance and requires each public institution of higher education to ensure free, robust, and uninhibited debate and deliberations by students enrolled at the institution, regardless of whether the students are on or off campus. It is a matter of statewide concern that all public institutions of higher education officially recognize freedom of speech as a fundamental right. Freedom of speech and assembly is central to the mission of institutions of higher education and persons should be permitted to assemble peaceably on the campuses of institutions of higher education for expressive activities, including to listen to or observe the expressive activities of others.

- 1.1. Any person is allowed, subject to reasonable time, place, and manner restrictions, to engage in expressive activities on campus, including by responding to the expressive activities of others.
- 1.2. Student organizations and employees are allowed to invite speakers to speak on campus. In determining the amount of a fee to be charged for use of the university's facilities for purposes of engaging in expressive activities, the university may

The university may not consider any anticipated controversy related to the event.

- 2.3. A student, student organization, or employee who is found to have unduly interfered with another person's expressive activity rights, as recognized by this rule, is subject to disciplinary action in accordance with the university's applicable rules and procedures. Additional MOUs may include other community colleges. An academy student must enroll for a minimum of 12 total credit hours each fall and spring semester. Three to five credit hours will be taught by Texas A&M and the remainder will be from the community college. Students who successfully complete the Academy by the first summer term following their second year with a minimum GPA of 2.50 at both institutions, as calculated by Texas A&M, will be automatically admitted to Texas A&M for the following fall. These students can then apply for a change of curriculum into a degree granting major in the College of Engineering. Students apply directly to the community college. The final decision of admission is determined by Texas A&M's Office of Admissions.

Engineering at Galveston/McAllen

The Engineering at Galveston/McAllen programs provide students with the opportunity for admission to engineering and addresses space limitations on the main campus. Students are admitted from the pool of engineering applications originally submitted to College Station. Students who choose to enroll follow the same entry to a major process as those students currently enrolled.

Program for System Admission:

Students not admitted to the main campus may select one of the A&M System Institutions and be admitted if they meet admission requirements for their selected institution. A student completes their first year at the System Institution. The program is limited to 7 specific areas of study (Agriculture & Life Sciences, Architecture, Education, Engineering, Geosciences, Liberal Arts and Science) and requires that applicants finish at least 24 transferable hours with a minimum 3.0 GPA for all courses attempted in the chosen Texas A&M degree plan.

The following footnote/column heading explanations apply to all System campuses:

* Uniform Admission Policy

19 Texas Administrative Code Part 1 Chapter 5 Subchapter A Rule §5.5

- (a) Each public university shall admit first-time undergraduate students for each semester in accordance with Texas Education Code §§51.801 - 51.809.
- (b) All applicants from Texas schools accredited by a generally recognized accrediting agency and who graduate in the top 10 percent of their high school class or who graduate in the top 25 percent of their high school class, to the extent the governing board of a general academic teaching institution has adopted such an admission policy, shall be admitted to a general academic teaching institution if the student meets the following conditions:
 - (1) The student has met one of the following:
 - (A) Successfully completed the distinguished level of achievement under the Foundation, Recommended, or Advanced High School Program from a Texas public high school as outlined under Texas Education Code, §28.025, as well as, 19 TAC §§74.63, 74.64, 74.73, and 74.74 (relating to the distinguished level of achievement under the Foundation, Recommended High School Program, or Distinguished Achievement High School Program--Advanced High School Program);
 - (B) Successfully completed a curriculum from a high school in Texas other than a public high school that is equivalent in content and rigor to the distinguished level of achievement under the Foundation, the Recommended, or Advanced High School Program as outlined under subsection (c) of this section;
 - (C) Satisfied ACT's College Readiness Benchmarks on the ACT assessment; or
 - (D) Earned on the SAT assessment a minimum score of 480 on the Evidenced-Based Reading and Writing (ERW) test and a minimum score of 530 on the mathematics test (no combined score).

¹ In March 2016, the College Board began the administration of a redesigned version of the SAT. The new SAT consists of two sections, Evidence-Based Reading and Writing (ERW) and Mathematics. Each section is scored on a scale of 200 to 800 with a total score range between 400 and 1600. The previous SAT consisted of three sections, Writing, Critical Reading and Mathematics. Each section was scored on a scale of 200 to 800 with a total score range between 600 and 2400. Universities will currently accept both versions of the SAT for admission decisions.

² House Bill 5 of the 83rd Texas Legislature established the new Foundation High School Program as the default graduation program for all students entering high school beginning in 2014. The bill replaced the Minimum High School Program, Recommended High School Program, and Distinguished Achievement Program with the Foundation High School Program. A student must earn at least 22 and one-half credits to complete the foundation program. In addition, it calls for a set of endorsements which consist of a related series of courses that are grouped together by interest or skill set. Endorsements provide students with in-depth knowledge of subject area.

A student may earn the Distinguished Level of Achievement by going beyond the Foundation High School Program which requires a total of 26 credits, including Algebra II, a fourth science credit and an endorsement. A student must earn this designation to be eligible for Top 10 percent automatic admission to a Texas public university.

Students may earn an additional acknowledgment on their transcripts because of outstanding performance in areas such as dual credit courses and bilingualism and biliteracy; on Advanced Placement, International Baccalaureate, PSAT, ACT ASPIRE, the SAT or ACT exams; or by earning a state-, nationally- or internationally-recognized business or industry certification.

Foundation High School Program (22 credits) include:

English (4 credits)	• English I • English II • English III • An advanced English course

MEMORANDUM

TO: Chief Executive Officers
The Texas A&M University System

SUBJECT: College Board and ACT to Suspend the Availability of Testing During the COVID-19 Virus Pandemic

In light of the decision made by the College Board and ACT to suspend the availability of testing during the COVID-19 virus pandemic, prospective students applying for admission in fall 2020 may not be able to submit an ACT or SAT score. I am granting you, as president, the authority to waive this requirement in this instance. All other admissions standards approved by the Board of Regents for your institution continue to apply.

A student who has scores is still free to submit them, and you should feel free to utilize those scores to decide admission in the established way when provided.

Prospective first year students must meet all other admission requirements.

Allen Redmon Professor English and Film Studies	11	Fall 2020	Dr. Allen Redmon's leave will take place in Killeen, Texas, De Montfort University in Leicester, UK, New Orleans, LA and New York, NY. He will spend his leave completing his monograph, Rewatching on the Point of the Index . This monograph develops a broader notion of indexicality and refocuses attention on the three specific types of spectatorial activity: the indefinite index, the imaginative index and the intertextual index. Dr. Redmon holds the position of president of the Literature/Film Association (LFA) which is the premier scholarly organization dedicated to the study of the intersections of literature and film in the world. He will establish formal interactions between the LFA and the Association for Adaptation Studies based at De Montfort University as a part of his faculty development leave. He will also organize adaptation as a standing forum within the Modern Language Association. The time spent conducting research will cement Dr. Redmon's position as a top scholar in film studies. A&M-Central Texas graduate and undergraduate students will benefit from his connections with top scholars across the United States and Europe and his expertise in the field. This activity is consistent with the university strategic plan and will help increase the international visibility and reputation of the College of Arts and Sciences, administration, and the university.

COLLEGE OF EDUCATION AND HUMAN SERVICES
Stephen Reysen Associate Professor Psychology and Special Education	10	Fall 2020	Dr. Reysen's leave will take place in Lexington, Kentucky, where he will write a manuscript detailing theory and research regarding anime fandom. Anime fans are individuals interested in Japanese animation and graphic novels. In collaboration with colleagues, Dr. Reysen has published multiple research papers on anime fandom over the past six years. While on leave, Dr. Reysen will review this research and provide new analysis not included in previous published works. The book will contribute to the field and scholarship of anime fandom by integrating prior and current research with a focus on anime fans. The estimated timeline for the completion of the manuscript is May 2021.
Karin Tochkov Associate Professor Psychology and Special Education	9	Spring 2021	Dr. Tochkov's leave will take place in Commerce and Rockwall, Texas. She will write a manuscript regarding the use of antidepressants, their benefits and consequences. Dr. Tochkov will work on a psychological case study of an identified female patient. The study will focus on psychiatric medication across the lifespan of individuals and the impact antidepressants have in their lives. The goal of the case study is to show the complicated role medications play in patients and to urge caution in prescribing practices and taking prescribed medication. The title of the project is "The Sad Side of Happy Pills."

COLLEGE OF HUMANITIES, SOCIAL SCIENCES & ARTS

Leigh Merrill Associate Professor Art	7.5	Fall 2020	Dr. Merrill's leave will take place in Dallas, Texas, with travel to Redwood National and State Parks in California, Cook Forest State Park in Pennsylvania, and the Pecos Wilderness in New Mexico, where she will take source photographs. She will compile these photographs into a database from which to create digitally collaged images. These forest images visually explore the spatial formation of place and myth. The audience will include art museums, galleries, curators, and art historians at cultural institutions. This project work will create peer-review, exhibition, grant, and conference opportunities. Collaged images are to be completed in January 2021.
Mylynka Cardona Assistant Professor History	3	Fall 2020	Dr. Cardona's leave will take place in London, the Hague and New York, where she will focus on the completion of a historical monograph about the life and legacy of Alexandrine Petronella Tinne (1835-1869). This project provides the first historical account of Tinne and provides a case study to allow analysis of the role of Western women traveling and exploring in the East during the Victorian era. Her travels established her status as a female explorer of Africa in the mid-nineteenth century, a time when Western societies did not think of women as explorers. Dr. Cardona will focus on archival research and an examination of new materials acquired from the Tinne family within the last five years. As part of the project, Dr. Cardona will attend an intensive Dutch for Reading Knowledge graduate course at Columbia University.
Andrew Baker Associate Professor History	4.5	Spring 2021	Dr. Baker's leave will take place in Commerce, Texas. He will work on his peer-reviewed historical monograph that uses the methods of commodity history to trace the twentieth-century history of arsenic from copper mines in Montana, to smelters of Tacoma, Washington, to agrochemical companies, to the jungles of Vietnam and ultimately to the cotton fields of East Texas. The manuscript is expected to be ready for submission by the end of summer 2021.

COLLEGE OF SCIENCE AND ENGINEERING
Kurtis A. Williams Associate Professor Physics & Astronomy	9	Spring 2021	Dr. Williams' leave will take place in California, where he will attend a multi-week, in-residence international research program at the University of California in Santa Barbara called "White Dwarfs as Probes of the Evolution of Planets, Stars, the Milky Way, and the Expanding Universe." Kavli Institute for Theoretical Physics hosts this in-residence program which brings together international researchers to interact and collaborate. The focus of Dr. Williams' leave is to complete a catalog of open cluster white dwarf stars and combine other data to confirm the nature of white dwarfs, cluster membership and to flag objects of particular astrophysical interest. Dr. Williams was invited to participate in this program which runs from March 15 through May 7, 2021.
Nikolay Sirakov Professor Mathematics	15	Spring 2021	Dr. Sirakov's leave will take place in France, Turkey and Alabama, where he will conduct research with colleagues at the University of Paris; Yildiz Technical University in Istanbul; University of Alabama at Birmingham; and Texas A&M University-Commerce. His study will continue the development of new methods to calculate the multi-vectors coefficients in the CA Cl, and to develop new formulas for Clifford product calculation between multi-vectors in Cl. Plans are to develop new kernels for SVMs and CNNs for faces, melanoma recognition and tracking targets in video.

TEXAS A&M UNIVERSITY-CORPUS CHRISTI

Name/ Title/ Department	Years of A&M- Corpus Christi Tenured, Tenure- Track Service	Semester of Leave	Location and Brief Description of Leave
COLLEGE OF BUSINESS
Robert Cutshall Professor Decision Sciences and Economics	17	Fall 2020	Dr. Cutshall's leave will take place at Mansfield University of Pennsylvania, where he will conduct research on consumer behavior theory by examining the factors that lead to the intention of online consumers to engage in social commerce. The findings may also help online merchants more effectively reach online consumers through social commerce and will help researchers better understand the perspectives of consumers. This information is useful for teaching courses involving the use of social commerce for business transactions. The manuscripts stemming from this research will benefit the department, college, and university since the conference proceedings and research publications will aid in the accreditation goals of the college and the university.
COLLEGE OF LIBERAL ARTS
Peter N. Moore Professor Humanities	14	Fall 2020	Dr. Moore's leave will take place in Corpus Christi, Texas, where he will complete a book manuscript draft of Spanish archival research, which examines the history of Carolina's Stuarts Town Colony (a Scottish colony established on the island of Port Royal in 1684 and destroyed by Spanish and indigenous forces in 1686), and, more broadly, the 17 th Century Southeastern Borderlands. This project takes a transatlantic and borderlands approach to Stuarts Town, fully integrating the perspectives of Scottish colonizers, English traders, Spanish imperial officials, and especially Indians. By producing at least three peer-reviewed publications, including a monograph, this project will bring recognition to the university and enhance its research profile. Moreover, it will keep the A&M-Corpus Christi history program diverse, as Dr. Moore is the only historian whose main fields are religious history and early American Indian history.

Michael Ramirez Associate Professor Psychology and Sociology	11	Fall 2020	Dr. Ramirez's leave will take place in Corpus Christi, Texas, where he will complete a proposal for a book that will expand the work-family literature by incorporating long-ignored contextual elements to examine the extent to which working life influences the gendered trends of family life participation. His contribution incorporates an analysis that begins with gender and social class, but also considers the oft-neglected influences of race, ethnicity, and job sector. This project will include a comparison of the experiences of working fathers in different job sectors (middle class and working class), job flexibility (the degree of autonomy in structuring and scheduling work hours), and racial and ethnic identities (Latinx vs. white). Ultimately, this work will examine an important dimension of gender inequality in the family and workplace and will generate new understandings of – and hopefully solutions to – important aspects of the work-family interface to allow for all parents to secure more satisfying work and family lives.
Sandrine Sanos Professor Humanities	11	Spring 2021	Dr. Sanos' leave will take place in Corpus Christi, Texas where she will draft six chapters of a book manuscript which traces how war, genocide, and exile in multiple countries shaped political ideas and cultural identities in France between 1954 and 1967. This book is a cultural and intellectual history. By focusing on ideas, images, and representations, Dr. Sanos will propose a radical revision to understanding the topic of violence in the 20 th century. From this research, two new courses will be proposed: one on comparative genocide and another on how philosophers, writers, and artists have tackled the question of violence during the Cold War. These classes and activities are especially important to a Hispanic-serving institution whose location in South Texas has put it at the forefront of debates regarding borders, migration, and citizenship. This project will continue to strengthen A&M-Corpus Christi's standing as a forward-looking university that promotes and supports professionally active and internationally and nationally-recognized faculty whose teaching and research are devoted to excellence.

COLLEGE OF SCIENCE AND ENGINEERING
Xinping Hu Associate Professor Physical and Environmental Sciences	7	Fall 2020	Dr. Hu's leave will investigate a poorly-studied area in the Gulf of Mexico region. Dr. Hu's leave will take place in several locations, including Corpus Christi, Texas; Mississippi State University in Starkville, MS; and at the Atlantic Oceanographic and Meteorological Lab in Miami, FL. The information obtained will aid in both future ocean acidification (OA) monitoring efforts and making adaptation strategies for this ecologically sensitive region. Data from three major repositories (e.g., the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration, the United States Geological Survey, and the National Science Foundation) will be utilized. Both spatial distribution and temporal variations of carbonate parameters will be examined using numerical and statistical analysis and modeling, and the variations will be examined in the context of river nutrient input as well as changes in physical oceanographic conditions. At least one peer-reviewed publication will be produced from this project. Dr. Hu has developed a new course, CMSS 6590 Special Topic class "Ocean and Estuarine Acidification" that will train both graduate students and interested upper-level undergraduate students on issues relevant to the OA problem in our own backyard. Therefore, this study will not only have the benefit of scientific exploration, but also carry the function of generating new knowledge for broader dissemination through education and public presentations.
Lei Jin Associate Professor Mathematics and Statistics	6	Fall 2020	Dr. Jin's leave will take place at Texas A&M University in College Station, Texas, where he and colleagues will focus on the development of a novel statistical method to check stationarity of time series data, which is critical for data scientists to select correct models. In the proposed work, Dr. Jin and colleagues will show both theoretical and practical properties of the proposed method. The proposed research will provide a better tool for data scientists to select correct models in time series analysis. The proposed research is highly computationally intensive and will require much time for Dr. Jin and his collaborators to complete it. The developmental leave will provide ample research time to fully investigate and to complete the proposed research. The interaction between the statisticians at both universities will be mutually beneficially for their academic development and respective institutions.

 - Disaster Recovery Loan Account means the account created in the general revenue fund with the comptroller and administered by the Division including money appropriated, credited, or transferred to the account by the legislature; money received by the comptroller for repayment of the loan principal and interest; gifts or grants contributed to the account; and interest earned on deposits and investments of the account. -

Rule

1. Disaster Recovery Loan Program

1.1 The Division shall develop a loan program to provide short-term loans to eligible political subdivisions for disaster recovery projects.

1.2 The loans must meet the following conditions:

1.2.1 the loan must be made at or below market interest rates for a term not to exceed 10 years; and

1.2.2 the loan proceeds must be expended by the eligible political subdivision solely for the applicable disaster recovery project.

2. Application for Disaster Recovery Loan Program

2.1 The Division shall develop and maintain an application which will provide sufficient information to verify the eligibility of the political subdivision and the applicable project for a loan.

2.2 The application will be posted to the Division website.

2.3 Determination of Eligibility of Political Subdivisions

2.3.1 Eligible political subdivision means a county, municipality, or school district that:

2.3.2 The political subdivision must show that an assessment of damages due to the disaster for which the declaration was made has been conducted in accordance with TDEM requirements in the political subdivision.

2.3.3 The political subdivision must provide to the Division sufficient information to show that the estimated cost to rebuild the political subdivision's infrastructure damaged in the disaster is greater than 50 percent of the political subdivision's total revenue for the current year as shown in the most recent operating budget of the political subdivision submitted to the division under this section.

2.4 The loan application will contain at a minimum the following items:

- 3.3 Once the information in 3.1 and 3.2 are verified as accurate, the Division will determine the availability of funds in the Disaster Recovery Loan account to provide the loan.

4. Awarding of the Loan

4.1 After verification of available funds and the verification of information in Section 3, the Division will evaluate currently viable applications on a first-come, first-served basis.

4.1.1 In the event that funds are not available to provide the loan, the Division shall notify the local jurisdiction of the unavailability of funds.

4.1.2 If funds subsequently become available, all eligible and verified applicants will be notified, and the Division shall make additional awards.

4.2 Based upon the current market interest rates, the Division will determine the interest rate for the loan which will be at or below the market interest rate.

4.3 The Division will determine the term of the loan which shall not exceed ten years.

4.4 If the term of the loan exceeds two years, the Division shall notify the state auditor's office of the loan within 30 business days from when the loan is made.

5. Management of the Loan

5.1 The Division shall notify the political subdivision of the award of the loan, including all loan terms and repayment provisions.

5.2 The political subdivision shall have 60 days to accept the terms of the loan on the form provided by the division which shall be signed by the chief elected official of the political subdivision and returned to the Division.

5.5 The political subdivision will receive a report monthly on the loan balance and payments made.

5.6 Missed Payment

5.6.1 In the event that a political subdivision fails to make a scheduled payment on the loan, the Division shall, within 10 business days, notify the political subdivision of the missed payment and request that the payment be made.

5.6.2 If a political subdivision fails to make two consecutive payments, the Division shall send a notice of the missed payments to the chief elected official of the political subdivision. The notice shall request that the missed payments be submitted within 10 business days.

- 5.6.3 If the political subdivision fails to make three consecutive payments, the Division shall notify the state auditor's office and take remedial actions as provided in Section 5.9.

5.7 Loan Forgiveness and Revision of Loan Terms

- 5.7.1 If the term of a loan from the account exceeds two years, the state auditor shall, on the second anniversary of the date on which the eligible political subdivision received the loan, conduct a limited audit of the political subdivision to determine whether the political subdivision has the ability to repay the loan under the terms of the loan. The state auditor's participation under this provision is subject to approval by the legislative audit committee for inclusion in the audit plan under Texas Government Code Section 321.013(c).
- 5.7.2 The Division may forgive a loan made to an eligible political subdivision if the state auditor determines that the political subdivision is unable to repay the loan.
- 5.7.3 Once the state auditor has determined that the political subdivision does not have the ability to repay the loan, the Division shall determine whether to reduce the payments on the loan to a level that is manageable by the political subdivision or to forgive the loan.
- 5.7.4 In the event that the Division chooses to renegotiate the loan terms to reduce the payments made by the political subdivision, the Division shall notify the political subdivision and negotiate a revision to the loan terms with the political subdivision.
- 5.7.5 If the political subdivision renegotiates the terms of the loan, the Division will revise the terms of the loan accordingly. The terms shall take effect upon receipt by the Division of the new loan terms signed by the chief elected officer of the political subdivision.

5.8 Remedies for Default of Payment

- 5.8.1 In the event that a political subdivision which has been found to have the ability to repay the loan by the State Auditor fails to make payments for three consecutive periods, or does not make up missed payments, the Division may take such actions as are necessary to ensure the viability of the loan program. The Division may use such methods as are routinely used in state-funded loan programs.

5.9 Loan Closure

- 5.9.1 Upon final repayment of the loan, the Division shall send to the political subdivision notification of the closure of the loan.
- 5.9.2 If the Division chooses to forgive a loan due to the political subdivision's inability to repay as determined by the state auditor's office, the Division shall notify the political subdivision that the loan has been forgiven, and enter the information in the CRC.
