

15TH ANNUAL
TEXAS A&M UNIVERSITY SYSTEM
MILITARY-AFFILIATED STUDENT
SYMPOSIUM

What's Next:
The Future of Veteran & Military Services

Quick Recap

- Thank you to Texas A&M University—San Antonio for hosting the 15th Annual Symposium!
- This year's symposium featured 35 plenary and concurrent sessions with over 140 attendees. The program is available on our website.
- For the first time, the symposium offered a student track with concurrent sessions designed for student veterans. Thank you to Chancellor Sharp for the generous funding that allowed for TAMUS student travel.

Welcoming remarks were made by John Sharp, Chancellor of the Texas A&M University System, and Dr. Hector Ochoa, President of Texas A&M University—San Antonio.

For the TAMUSA press release about the Symposium, click here.

Keynote speaker, Kandi Tillman, Managing Co-Founder of 50strong, spoke about employer collaboration as a key component to employment outcomes for military-affiliated students. She was joined on stage by 6 employer partners.

A special thank you to our sponsors,
Wounded Warrior Project and John Deere!

